6. Class Assemblies

The end-of-week assembly this Friday will be organised by Te Kakano & Te Pihi. It will start at 1.45pm. We encourage all our parents, especially those whose children are involved in the presentation, to come along to enjoy it.

7. Northland Swimming Championships

Four of our students qualified for the Northland Primary Schools Swimming Champs to be held next Thursday in Dargaville. Congratulations to Damon, Kahlia, Tawa and Chilli!

8. Fruit Kebabs

The cost for the fruit kebabs is $5 a term per family [or $20 per year]. This helps to pay for the fruit each student receives every Monday and Wednesday. Fruit kebab contributions are to be handed to Mrs Windleborn in the office. Thank you to those who have already paid.

9. BOYS' CAMP

Coopers Beach - Survival Man!

19-22 April 2018

to Register: www.cbcc.co.nz/our-camps

10. Ahorangi Maurakau

Our group had to postpone their visit today and tomorrow. They will now be here next Monday working with Te Kauru and Te Puawai then on Tuesday with Te Whare Tui, Te Pihi and Te Kakano.

11. Kadodo African Drumming & Dance

This Friday we have a special visitor from Ghana coming in to entertain the students in a whole school performance and an interactive session. Our performer, Koffie Fugah, will perform a few rhythms, songs and history of the rhythms from his homeland Ghana. There will be 50 drums which will be dispersed amongst the audience so it will definitely create some noise! He will be here to perform at 11am. We invite all our whanau to come in and join us for this show.

14. Duffy Role Model Assembly

Next Wednesday 11th April, we have our 'Role Model' assembly. Diana Queenin spent a year at a High School in the United States under a Field Service Scholarship when she was 17. Since then she has lived for extended periods of time in Melbourne, New York and Los Angeles (as well as Auckland and Wellington). While in New York she worked as a guide in the Museum of Natural History specializing in Dinosaurs and Ocean Life. In Los Angeles she attended UCLA University and studied BioGeography (the affect of nature on the land) and spent time in the American deserts among the cactus and snakes. She is a certified Scuba Diver and did many dives in the Caribbean, the Red Sea, and Thailand and learned much about the underwater world. She joined Project Jonah on her return to New Zealand and is very interested in Whales and Dolphins (as well as Monarch Butterflies, Plants, Fishing, Insects, Birds, Children, Travel, and READING BOOKS). The assembly starts at 9.30pm. We invite all our parents /caregivers to come along and listen.

15. Building Relationships with Your Child

Healthy relationships happen when young people and adults actively listen to each other, treat each other with respect, honesty, kindness, and empathy and enjoy their time together. Try these tips for encouraging caring relationships in your child's life.

AT HOME

- Be emotionally close: No two parents show love in quite the same way. Some shower their children with lots of hugs, high fives, and kind notes; others are more reserved. Tap into your own way of showing your children you care.
- Communicate openly and directly. When you speak to your children, are your messages grounded in love, respect and clarity? Do you ever say one thing and mean another?

- Set clear rules. The key to reducing everyone's stress and frustration about rules and expectations is to be clear, consistent, reasonable and open to change. This means being responsive to your child's changing developmental needs and what they've shown you about their choices.
- Give children chances to share the work at home and to help out and serve others. Show your children that they are valued at home by giving them increasing levels of responsibility. As always, your good example is the strongest motivator.

IN THE COMMUNITY

- Notice those who make special efforts with your children and thank them; teachers, youth leaders, extended family members, neighbours, music instructors, tutors, bus drivers and many other people in your children's lives. All of them have an influence. Find opportunities for children to mix with different age groups, especially the elderly. There is much enjoyment in young and old spending time together.
